9. What is trusted profile and how to obtain it?

Trusted profile is an electronic identification tool. It enables you confirming your identity in the Internet and signing a document with an electronic signature. More information is available here: <https://www.gov.pl/web/profilzaufany>.

10. What application can I submit via the new MOS portal?

You can apply for the following permits via MOS portal (available via Internet browser):

- temporary residence permit,
- permanent residence permit,
- long-term resident's EU residence permit.

From the moment the new MOS portal is launched, it will be possible to submit applications for the above-mentioned permits exclusively in electronic form.

You don't need to print the application and send it to a voivod. Even if you print and send the application in paper form to the voivod, it will not be examined.

NOTE!

The persons, whose legal residence expires from from the middle of March until the end of April, we recommend that you do not delay submitting your residence permit application and submit it as soon as possible in paper form.

Closely monitor information regarding the launch date of the new portal! A paper application must be received by the Voivodeship Office before the launch date of the new MOS portal. If an application arrives after this date, it will not be considered (it will be left without examination) – the postmark date (mailing date) will not be taken into account.

You cannot apply for the following temporary residence permits via MOS portal:

- for the purposes of work as an intra-corporate transferee;
- for the purposes of long-term mobility of a manager, specialist or graduate trainee, under the intra-corporate transfer;

- for the purposes of family reunion – when a foreigner concerned resides outside Poland;
- for a family member of a citizen of the Republic of Poland, citizen of the EU Member State or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, referred to in Article 10(1)(b) and (d) of the Withdrawal Agreement – when a foreigner concerned resides outside Poland;
- for a foreigner having a family life in the meaning of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms with a citizen of the Republic of Poland, citizen of the EU Member State or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, referred to in Article 10(1)(b) and (d) of the Withdrawal Agreement – when a foreigner concerned resides outside the territory of the Republic of Poland

– these applications should still be submitted in paper form under the existing rules.

11. Does the MOS portal enables me to submit any application for a residence permit in Poland?

You can apply for the following permits via MOS portal:

- temporary residence permit (apart from the exceptions listed below) ,
- permanent residence permit,
- Long-term resident's EU residence permit.

You cannot apply for the following temporary residence permits via MOS portal:

- for the purposes of work as an intra-corporate transferee;
- for the purposes of long-term mobility of a manager, specialist or graduate trainee, under the intra-corporate transfer;
- for the purposes of family reunion – when a foreigner concerned resides outside Poland;
- for a family member of a citizen of the Republic of Poland, citizen of the EU Member State or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, referred to in Article 10(1)(b) and (d) of the Withdrawal Agreement – when a foreigner concerned resides outside Poland;

– these applications are submitted in paper form under the existing rules.

12. Are the proceedings fully online, or require my appearance in person?

Only submitting the application is fully online. You will have to appear in person on request of the voivod handling the case to provide your fingerprints and specimen signature, present the original passport and documents and – if necessary – supplement any missing documents.

13. Do I need to book a date to submit my application?

No, you don't need to book a date to submit the application or stay in queues - you can apply at any time and place that is convenient to you via MOS portal.

14. Can I apply using my smartphone, or is a computer necessary?

You can fill your application using any device via Internet browser.

15. I have no access to a computer. How to apply for a residence permit in Poland?

In such case, you may receive assistance in the voivodeship office, where you intend to apply.

16. Can I use the assistance of a representative? I am afraid that I am not able to handle this myself.

The form in the MOS system is developed in a way so that anyone can fill it without professional assistance. You will find there simple instructions to guide you step by step.

Naturally, if you feel uncertain, you can use assistance of a third person to fill the electronic application, but remember that you need to be logged in to your account. The key issue is to sign the application using your electronic signature or trusted profile at the end.

Never share your logging information to login.gov.pl. This may affect security of your data!

17. Can a representative fill the application for me and send it from its account at the MOS portal?

No. You must log in to the MOS portal personally, using your logging data.

Never share your logging information to login.gov.pl. This may affect security of your data!

18. My legal residence ends in a few days before or after launching the new MOS portal. What should I do in such case to effectively apply for a residence permit in Poland?

The persons, whose legal residence expires from the middle of March until the end of April, we recommend that you do not delay submitting your residence permit application and submit it as soon as possible in paper form.

Closely monitor information regarding the launch date of the new portal! A paper application must be received by the Voivodeship Office before the launch date of the new MOS portal. If an application arrives after this date, it will not be considered (it will be left without examination) – the postmark date (mailing date) will not be taken into account.

19. What should I do, if I want to apply for a residence permit in Poland on the last day of my legal residence and on that day the MOS portal is disabled?

In such case, you need to submit your application within 3 working days following the date, when the system's unavailability was removed, at the latest. The date of submission shall be the first day of the system's unavailability.

The official website of the Office for Foreigners (www.gov.pl/udsc) will publish information on the system failures, scheduled maintenance breaks and restarting the system.

Please be aware that after restarting the MOS portal, you should not postpone submitting your application by the last day of your legal residence. There may be the case that you will be unable to attach all necessary documents to your application in a single day.

We particularly encourage you to earlier submissions of applications, which require signing an attachment by a third person:

- by employer – when applying for a permit:
 - for temporary residence and work,
 - for temporary residence for the purposes of conducting business, which is issued to a foreigner aimed at taking up employment in the management board of a limited liability company or a joint-stock company, which was established by or which shares of stocks were purchased or acquired by this foreigner, or running a limited partnership or a limited joint-stock partnership by a as a general partner or acting as a commercial proxy,
 - for taking up highly qualified employment or for temporary residence permit for the purposes of long-term mobility of the EU Blue Card holder;
- by graduate institution – when applying for a temporary residence permit for the purposes of studying;
- by traineeship or voluntary work organiser – when applying for a temporary residence permit for the purposes of a traineeship or voluntary work.

Please remember that if the application requires an attachment signed by a third person (for example employer), you may wait for a long time for such signature.

20. Do I have to fill the application in Polish?

Yes, you have to fill the application in Polish. If you are afraid that your knowledge of Polish is insufficient, you can use public, free text translation tools or use the assistance of a Polish-speaking person. Do not worry that you will write something incorrectly – all that matters is that your answers are understandable and your personal data provided correctly – in accordance with data from your travel document (a foreign passport).

21. How to apply for a residence permit in Poland via MOS portal?

Soon you will be able to apply for a residence permit in Poland (temporary, permanent and long-term resident's EU residence permit) only in electronic form via dedicated MOS portal (Cases Handling Module), available via Internet browser. You don't need to book a date to submit the application or stay in queues – you can apply at any time and place that is convenient to you. You can also stop filling the application, save the entered data and re-edit them.

Access to the MOS system will be free of charge. You can apply by your own, without the need to use any paid services of the agents. Your only costs include the stamp duty at the time of applying (in the amount depending on the type of permit – between PLN 340 and 640) and a fee for issuing a residence card (PLN 100). You cannot pay via MOS portal.
